

Comfortable armchair with a strong character

The Polar armchair combines soft, organic shapes with stylish, minimalist lines. It is an inviting and distinctive seating piece that fits just as well in lounge areas and receptions as in meeting spaces and lobbies.

With its elegant design, it blends seamlessly into different environments while also making an impression – both visually and in terms of comfort. Place it alone as a stylish statement piece or combine it with coffee tables and sofas for a harmonious setting.

Polar is a high-quality armchair where craftsmanship and smart design come together. It consists of three integrated parts: seat, back, and curved steel tubes that form the legs and seat frame, resulting in a sleek and well-thought-out construction. The gap between the seat and back makes the armchair easy to wipe and keep clean.

Thanks to the wide range of quality-assured fabrics, leather, faux leather, and accent colours from Kinnarps Colour Studio, you can create a look that perfectly matches your interior. All materials are carefully selected to be sustainable and easy to harmonise with different environments.
