

The embracing education chair

With its embracing design, the Xpect education chair offers the user a sense of security and the possibility to vary their seating position. It's ideal in spaces such as classrooms, group rooms, squares or canteens.

Xpect is a versatile family of chairs, which offers different functionality and areas of use depending on which version you choose. The different versions share a design language, which makes it easy to combine different chairs for a harmonious look. It's available in several different heights and with different types of underframe.

Thanks to its clever design, the version with a c-frame and flexing backrest offers enhanced comfort and encourages natural movements. The chair can be adjusted in two seat depths, and the higher versions come with an adjustable footrest so they can grow with the students. All versions are stackable for flexibility and suspendable for easy cleaning. Choose from a wide selection of colours and materials.
